Have you ever wanted to run away with the circus? Well, here's your chance....once again the South Peace Community Arts

Council alongside Green Fools Theatre Company is gearing up for their sixth Annual Circus North Workshop in Dawson Creek.

During the five-day training period the students are exposed to various physical theatre elements including acrobatics, juggling, stilt walking, unicycle riding, costuming, wire walking, puppetry, and interactive clowning. As part of the instruction, Green Fools Theatre Company will focus on teaching circus entertainment skills that help build the student's self-confidence, team spirit, performance abilities, and appropriate social manners. It all wraps up with a final performance which is open to family, friends and the citizens in our community which showcases the skills they acquired in the workshop.
